I'm still loving you
No matter what you say or do
I'm still loving you
Ah, ah, ah, ah, ah, ahh

Last night, I wrote you a letter
I tore it up today (tore it up today)
But it read, "not doing any better"
Oh, baby since you went away (since you went away)

But I'm still (I'm still loving you)
I love you, baby (no matter what you say or do)
No matter what you do (I'm still loving you)
I need you, ooh, oh
I can't get you out of my mind
No, no, no, no
No, no, baby

I can't pull myself together
Since you said goodbye (since you said goodbye)
Every day I try to forget
Every night I cry (every night I cry)

But I'm still (I'm still loving you)
I love you, baby (no matter what you say or do)
No matter what you do (I'm still loving you)
I need you, ooh, oh
I can't get you out of my mind
No, no, no, no
No, no, baby

Ah, ah, ah, ah, ah, ahh
I given up all of my pride
I got to let it go (got to let it go)
I can't hold back what's inside
I got to let you know (got to let you know)

Might I'm still (I'm still loving you)
I love you, baby (no matter what you say or do)
And no matter what you do (I'm still loving you)
I need you, ooh, oh
I can't get you out of my mind
No, no, no, no
No, no, baby
I love you (still, still loving you)
I love you, baby (still, still loving you)
I need you (still, still loving you)

I need you, baby (still, still loving you)
Given up my pride (still, still loving you)
I can't hold back what's inside (still, still loving you)
I love you (still, still loving you)
