My baby loves me, oh yeah
And my baby needs me, oh yeah
No other girl can whisper sweet things in my ear
My sweetie pie has the only sweet voice I hear so clear

Sayin' that he needs me
(You know he really, really needs me)
Oh yeah, yeah (Oh yeah)
My baby loves me
(You know he really, really loves me)
Oh yeah, yeah (Oh yeah)

I can't seem to see no other beautiful face, oh no
There's just no cute substitute can take my baby's place
'Cause I know he needs me
(You know he really, really needs me)
Woh, woh, yeah, yeah (Oh yeah)

Now I will never, ever give my baby no trouble
Whenever he calls me I come runnin' on the double

'Cause I know he needs me
(You know he really, really needs me)
Oh yeah, yeah (Oh yeah)
My baby needs me
(You know he really, really needs me)
Oh yeah, yeah (Oh yeah)
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah [Repeat x 7]

Now nobody can't tell me the place that I'm going wrong, oh no
Nobody could ever embrace the love so strong, so strong

'Cause I know she needs me
(You know he really, really needs me)
She told me that he needs me (oh yeah)
My baby loves me
(You know he really, really loves me)
Oh yeah, yeah (Oh yeah, yeah)
My baby loves me
